

The Sybil Howard Community Service Award

Sybil Howard was a long-time resident of Chetnole, living at the Old Forge in Mill Lane from 1951 until her death in 2014. Her life was dedicated to the community she served, and she was an enthusiastic participant in most village events.

(for more about Sybil and the origins of the award please visit: www.chetnoleandstockwood-pc.gov.)

As a tribute to her, Sybil's family created an award to recognise voluntary community service in or near Chetnole. The Parish Council have agreed that despite the on-going Covid restrictions, the nominations should happen again this year. It is hoped that the award will again be presented at the Chetnole Flower Show on 1 August.

Those who live in Chetnole, Stockwood, Hamlet or Melbury Bubb are invited to nominate a candidate of any age, or who has recently passed away, who they believe has provided a voluntary community service within the local area.

The person nominated should have demonstrated exceptional service or kindness to other members of the local community, for example:

- ◆ running a social group
- ◆ providing a particular act of kindness during a crisis
- ◆ a sustained act of 'thoughtfulness' such as looking after a neighbour in need
- ◆ organising a village event
- ◆ volunteering to maintain a village facility
- ◆ providing commercial services beyond 'commercial interests' (that is, not just for money)
- ◆ whole-heartedly participating in village events

Please take a moment to consider who is deserving of this award, and post your nomination, by Friday 14 July, in one of the voting boxes in the village. Boxes will be placed in the St Peter's Church Porch or the Old Red Telephone Kiosk
